

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 14, 2016

MEDIA ADVISORY: Camp Hill Little League Challenger Baseball will visit nation's capital

Team to be recognized for Little League World Series Challenger Division Exhibition Game Achievement

On Wednesday, September 21, 2016, Camp Hill Little League Challenger Baseball will be hosted by Congressman Scott Perry (PA-04) and also meet with U.S. Senator Bob Casey (D-PA) in Washington, D.C., in recognition of their recent play in the 2016 Little League World Series Challenger Division® Exhibition Game.

The game recently took place at the Little League International Complex in South Williamsport, PA, on Saturday, August 27, and showcased the opportunities that the Little League Challenger Division provides to more than 30,000 children with physical and intellectual challenges at more than 900 leagues worldwide.

In South Williamsport, Camp Hill played the Colorado District 1 Little League Challenger Division from Grand Junction, CO.

WHO: Camp Hill Little League Challenger Baseball (14 players, 10 buddies, 2 coaches, et. al), Congressman Perry, Senator Casey

WHEN: Wednesday, September 21, 2016, 12:00 to 12:30 p.m.; photo on Capitol steps

WHERE: Office of Congressman Scott Perry
1207 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

For more information about Camp Hill Little League Challenger Baseball, visit <https://www.camphillbaseball.com> or <https://www.facebook.com/CampHillChallengerBaseballLeague/>

CONTACT:

Tony Fowler, Director
Camp Hill Little League Challenger Baseball
(717)576-1046

Jennifer Hoover-Vogel, Information Officer
Camp Hill Little League
(717)319-0858

